LYNNE MOONEY TETA
Head Master

Happy Thanksgiving to the members of the Boston Latin School and English High School communities!

November is a wonderful time of year when we welcome home family and friends to celebrate and give thanks for the opportunities life has afforded us. One of our favorite Thanksgiving traditions is the Latin vs. English football game, now in its 121st year. Since 1886, students, families, faculty and alumni have come together to support their schools.

I extend warm Thanksgiving wishes to Head Master Jose Duarte and the entire English High School community as we continue this historic rivalry with today's athletic contest. Our tradition brings out the best in both schools, and we look forward to a game played with good sportsmanship and spirit.

I would like to thank the faculty, students, coaches, families and alumni who support our great tradition of Boston Latin School activities. Today, we showcase the football team, the cheerleading squad, the step squad and the football band – all made up of students who commit their time and energy to wearing the Purple and White with a great deal of school pride!

Go Wolfpack! Happy Thanksgiving!

José P. Duarte
Headmaster

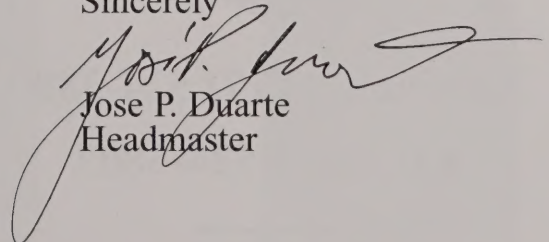

September has past, the leaves have fallen, and the air is crisp so it must be time for two of America's most reversed institutions of learning to once again renew a timehonored tradition in schoolboy athletics. The annual Thanksgiving Day Latin vs. English football game.

During this time of gratitude I would like to take the opportunity to express my deepest appreciation to a committed and dedicated staff, a most wonderful student body and an alumni community who without their unwavering support, success could not be possible. I am indeed privileged to have the honor of serving this great institution, The English High, America's oldest Public High School. Please join me in giving thanks to all them and our football coaches and players, today in particular, for their effort and dedication.

I am pleased to welcome and extend my best wishes to Ms. Moonet-Teta, Latin's new Headmaster. I congratulate Latin's football team, students and staff for another outstanding year. I would like to take the opportunity to congratulate my colleague and friend Headmaster Cormelia Kelly on her retirement after many successful years at the Latin.

Men of The English High, stand your ground, tackle hard, play well for I BELIEVE this is the year. Victory is ours to be had. Happy Thanksgiving to all. Go Blue and Blue. Beat the Wolfpack.

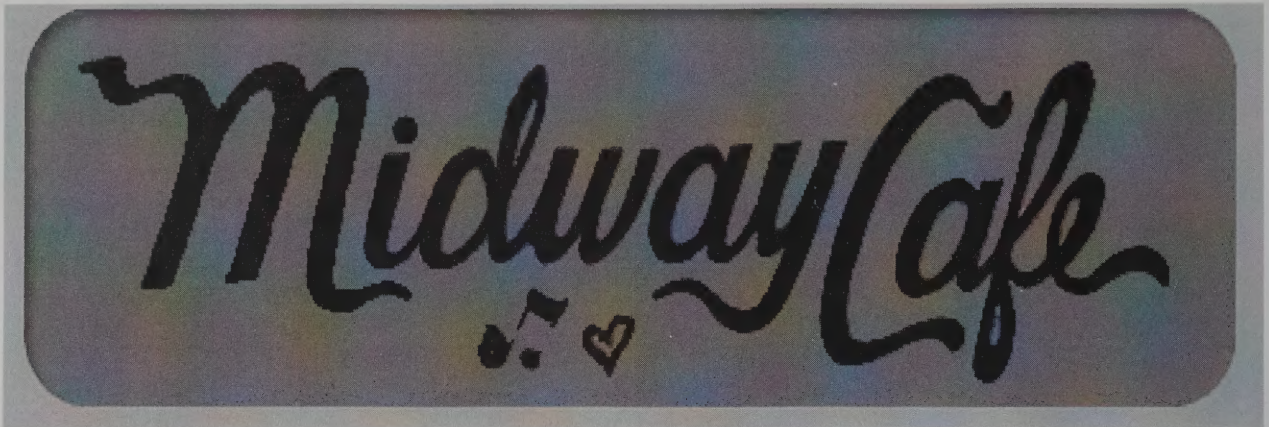

Sincerely

Jose P. Duarte
